

Proposal

Edges of Changes

Documentary Pitch Package

Presented by:

Trinidad Films

Edges of Changes

Trinidad, Colorado

Beneath the looming, volcanic silhouette of Fisher's Peak and the rugged slopes of Simpson's Rest, this documentary peels back the layers of Trinidad, Colorado—a town built on the collision of cultures and eras.

Story Concept

Genre

Documentary

Color

Format

Mood

Inspirational

Widescreen

Video Format

Talent

Historian

Carol Jarapando

Historian

Trinidad, Public Library

Narrator

Kevin Tarantela

Voiceover Expert

Los Angeles, California

Short Storyline

The History of the Wild West

In the high desert of Southern Colorado, a dying coal town finds unlikely salvation three times over: first through organized labor, then through gender-affirming surgery, and finally through the counter-culture art world.

Visual Style and Editing Format

Visual Style : Gritty

With the history of the area, and the geographical location, a gritty style will be emphasized to create a you are there feeling.

Editing Format : Eras

Each era in the Trinidad History will express it's own unique color and style designs to show the variance of the location.

Target Audience & Engagement Potential

Age: 15–99 years

Format suitable for FYP

Smart, emotional,
unexpected ending

Viral Potential

Cliffhanger
at the end

Production Plan

|                |                             |
|----------------|-----------------------------|
| Shooting       | 2 months                    |
| Location       | Trinidad, CO & region       |
| Cast           | 20 Interviews1 Narrator |
| Minimal budget | $370,000 USD               |

Promotion & Posting Strategy

Premiere

Premiere at the Historic Fox
West Theatre

Hashtag

#EdgesofTrinidad

Attractive Caption

A Victorian town caught on the edge of its own reinvention.

Invite Followers

Colorado History Groups

Thank You

Trinidad Films

345 Park Avenue Denver, CO 80002

555-0155

filminfo@sofp.org

